

PSDS Permit Application Process

**A homeowner permit is permitted for residential use. Please be aware, should you apply for a homeowner permit, you should be the person performing the undertaking*

**Systems serving Public Institution, Commercial or Multi Family buildings - require a certified contractors to obtain Permit. Verify contractor certification at http://www.municipalaffairs.alberta.ca/CP\_PrivateSewageContractorList*

Holding Tank

Note: Verify with your local Municipality to confirm if any restriction on the installation and use of a holding tank exist

Note: A holding tank serving a detached single family dwelling shall have a storage capacity of not less than 1,000 imp gal (2015 SOP, Section 3.1.1.1)

Application to include:

- ✓ Complete application form including applicant signature & payment method
- ✓ Contractor permit application to include PSDS ticket number
- ✓ Plans for holding tank to include:
  - B66 Certificate
  - Hi Level Alarm (manufacturer and model information)
- ✓ Site plan noting:
  - all applicable setbacks (property lines, buildings, water source)
  - Location of proposed tank installation